BEST INTEREST DISCLOSURE

FOR RETIREMENT ACCOUNTS ROLLOVER/TRANSFERS

When we provide investment advice to you regarding your retirement plan account or individual retirement account, we are fiduciaries within the meaning of Title I of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act and/or the Internal Revenue Code, as applicable, which are laws governing retirement accounts. The way we make money creates some conflicts with your interests, so we operate under a special rule that requires us to act in your best interest and not put our interest ahead of yours.

IMPARTIAL CONDUCT STANDARD #2 - REASONABLE COMPENSATION

The second impartial conduct standard mandates that advisers receive reasonable compensation for their services and includes both direct and indirect compensation. Reasonable means the compensation cannot be excessive and does not mandate that compensation be the lowest possible. Compensation must be judged in the context of the services provided; therefore, higher compensation may be reasonable for more comprehensive and detailed services. Whether or not compensation is reasonable depends on how it compares to alternatives. Justify how the compensation for the recommendations is reasonable in light of the proposed services and alternatives. Document the justification for the fees below.

IMPARTIAL CONDUCT STANDARD #3 - NO MISLEADING STATEMENTS (FOR ADVISER ONLY)

Advisers must not make misleading statements about investment transactions, compensation, and conflicts of interest. Do you (the Adviser) attest that no misleading statements were made in discussions with the retirement investor? Yes

If you have any questions regarding this attestation, please speak with the TLG Advisors Compliance department.

BEST INTEREST DISCLOSURE

ATTESTATION

This Best Interest Disclosure is intended to supplement other required disclosures such as Form CRS and the Form ADV Part 2A brochure. By signing below we affirm receipt of these required disclosures.

If I am a participant in a plan where the Adviser is a fiduciary to the plan, the decision to take the distribution/rollover to an IRA is solely my decision and I was not influenced by the Adviser's role as a fiduciary to the plan.

I acknowledge that Adviser's recommendation entails compensation which presents a conflict of interest, however, this recommendation is intended to comply with the impartial conduct standards.
